1. Code of Conduct for Coatbridge Rovers FC Coaches

Coaches are key to the establishment of ethics in football. Their concept of ethics and their attitude directly affects the behaviour of players under their supervision. Coaches are, therefore expected to pay particular care to the moral aspect of their conduct. Coaches have to be aware that almost all of their everyday decisions and choices of actions, as well as strategic targets, have ethical implications.

Naturally, winning constitutes a basic concern for coaches. This code is not intended to conflict with that. However, the code calls for coaches to dissociate themselves from a "win-at-all-costs" attitude.

Increased responsibility is requested from coaches involved in coaching young people. The health, safety, welfare and moral education of young people are the priority, before the achievement or the reputation of the club, school, coach or parent.

1.1 Coaches must respect the rights, dignity and worth of every person and treat each equally within the context of the sport.

1.2 Coaches must place the well-being and safety of each player above all other considerations, including the development of performance.

1.3 Coaches must adhere to all guidelines laid down by governing bodies.

1.4 Coaches must develop an appropriate working relationship with each player based on mutual trust and respect.

1.5 Coaches must not exert undue influence to obtain personal benefit or reward.

1.6 Coaches must encourage and guide players to accept responsibility for their own behaviour and performance.

1.7 Coaches must ensure that the activities they direct or advocate are appropriate for the age, maturity, experience and ability of players.

1.8 Coaches should, at the outset, clarify with the players (and, where appropriate, parent) exactly what is expected of them and also what they are entitled to expect from their coach.

1.9 Coaches must co-operate fully with other specialists (e.g. other coaches, officials, sports scientists, doctors, physiotherapists) in the best interests of the player.

1.10 Coaches must always promote the positive aspects of the sport (e.g. fair play) and never condone violations of the Laws of the Game, behaviour contrary to the spirit of the Laws of the Game or relevant rules and regulations or the use of prohibited substances or techniques.

1.11 Coaches must consistently display high standards of behaviour and appearance, wear Club Kit at all times where available and maintain good personal hygiene.

1.12 Coaches must not use or tolerate inappropriate language.

1.13 Coaches must promote and encourage, particularly to young players, the importance of a healthy lifestyle and diet.

1.14 Coaches must provide guidance and support to players on the dangers of drug and alcohol abuse.

1.15 Coaches must adhere to the terms of the Club's Policy on Anti-Discrimination.

4 Code of Conduct for Parents and Guardians with young players connected with Coatbridge Rovers Football Club

All children play football because they first and foremost love the game – it is fun. It is important to remember that however good a child becomes at football within your club it is important to reinforce the message to parents that positive encouragement will contribute to:

- Children enjoying football.
- A sense of personal achievement.
- Self-esteem.
- Improving the child's skills and techniques.

A parent's expectations and attitudes have a significant bearing on a child's attitude towards:

- Other players.
- Officials.
- Managers.
- Spectators.

Ensure that parents within your club are always positive and encouraging towards all of the children not just their own.

Encourage parents to:

- Applaud the opposition as well as your team.
- Avoid coaching the child during the game.
- Not to shout, scream and/or swear.
- Respect the referee's decision.
- Be respectful to the coaches of Coatbridge Rovers FC and other clubs
- Give attention to each of the children involved in football, not just the most talented.
- Encourage everyone to participate in football.
- Adhere to the terms of the Club's Policy on Anti-Discrimination.
- Ensure that parents within your club agree and adhere to your club's Code of Conduct and Child Protection Policy.
- Refrain from approaching the technical area during a match.

5 Code of Conduct for Coatbridge Rovers Football Club Supporters

Once our club has addressed the conduct of its coaches, players, officials and parents and guardians of its young players it will be in a position to set an appropriate example to its supporters in terms of their behaviour.

The crowd is considered to be an organic component of a football game. The support of the fans will contribute to the success of the team. The crowd is not expected to watch the game in silence. Encouragement of the teams by shouting, non-abusive singing, etc may have a positive influence on the atmosphere under the spirit of Fair Play.

The spectators are, however, expected to respect the opponents and the referee. They should appreciate the performance of the opposition even if they emerge as winners. They should in no way intimidate or frighten opponents, the referee or opposing supporters. At all times the supporters shall be encouraged to comply with the club's position on Discrimination and Unacceptable Conduct.
